I am a licensed Nia Technique teacher offering Nia classes livestreamed and in person in my local community. Nia is an international acclaimed cardiovascular mind-body movement practice taught in more than 45 countries worldwide in a variety of settings. Nia is the first practice to combine martial arts, dance arts and healing arts. www.niatv.fit www.nianow.com

One of Nia's main appeals is that it benefits people of all ages and ability levels, and can be tailed to specialty populations. All 52 of Nia's moves are based on what we call The body's Way – a method of moving the body in accordance with its natural design and function.

Participants are encouraged to explore three planes of movement (low, middle, and high) and to choose from three intensity levels based on their individual needs.

I look forward to sharing the joy of Nia dance, wellness, exercise in your wellness experience. Looking forward to dance Nia with you,

Claudia Salomon,
